

Jihadists of Al-Qaeda in / to Europe

Part 1: Is the USA satisfied for Al Qaeda's extension in Europe?

Before discussing the probability of the existence of jihadists or the possibility of their reaching Central Europe. It is important to note that since March 2025, a serious and ongoing investigation has been underway, focusing on monitoring the movements of al-Qaeda jihadists in various geographic areas within Syria and in the region. And "al'ansar" in Europe. Furthermore, it is necessary to point out that during these ongoing investigations, information gathered over the past years regarding the leadership position of Abu Muhammad al-Julani (Ahmad al-Sharaa) within al-Qaeda has been retrieved. The data has been reanalysed to examine why al-Zawahiri sent Ahmed Zaidan to Syria in 2015 to assist al-Julani in reconstituting Jabhat al-Nusra, which later became Hayat Tahrir al-Sham. It is no secret that Ahmed Zaidan has become al-Julani's arm and the link to al-Qaeda's leadership, supervising the suicide jihadist factions.

It was necessary to publish this release after Al-Qaeda began using the media to distort the facts. Perhaps one of the most dangerous things that happened that few days ago, the Saudi-owned Al Arabiya channel, conducted an extensive interview with Ahmed Zaidan, in an attempt to whitewash the new ideology of Al-Qaeda.

Ahmed Zaidan, the former media advisor to al-Qaeda leaders Osama bin Laden and Ayman al-Zawahiri, who masterminded the 2001 New York attacks. Zaidan currently appears as an advisor to Abu Mohammed al-Julani (Ahmad al-Sharaa), the leader of Hayat Tahrir al-Sham (formerly Jabhat al-Nusra), which is effectively al-Qaeda's affiliate in Syria. But he is not just an advisor, rather the mastermind behind Al Qaeda's new ideology of controlling the Eastern Mediterranean.

During the interview, as expected, Zaidan, the al-Qaeda advisor, stated that Abu Muhammad al-Julani and new system in the Levant, will not allow the establishment of political or religious parties, but rather a state implementing ( a new form of al-Qaeda ideology).

As we all know, on December 8, 2024, this organization seized power in Syria with the clear approval of the United States and Israel, under the supervision of Türkiye, and Britain. This organization, which known to Britain and the United States, are trains and equips jihadist groups, including suicide bombers.

According to the information available to date, the threat is no longer ISIS, but rather al-Qaeda's activity in a geographical area extending from northern to central and some parts of southern Syria, and northern Lebanon, where it produces jihadists who pose a direct threat to both the region and Europe throughout their sleeping cells.

Al-Qaeda's plan since 2015 was to produce Hayat Tahrir al-Sham to include more jihadist factions than Jabhat al-Nusra.

The imminent danger lies in the presence of sleeper cells (Al-Ansar) planted in the heart of Europe, carrying out logistical tasks.

A large portion of our ongoing investigations has been confirmed by international and European investigations, including a UN report and a European Parliament resolution, which indicated the involvement of al-Qaeda (Hayat Tahrir al-Sham) in the recent massacres in Syria. While other investigations also noted some activity in northern Lebanon, as well mentioned to al-Qaeda's media, political and social activity in Europe.

All of this raises fundamental questions that the ongoing investigation seeks to uncover:

*Do European societies realize the grave danger looming over their cities and streets?

*Why are European politicians ignoring the marketing of Al-Qaeda's new ideology?

In the near future, much information will gradually be released through the ongoing investigations.
